

Abdullah Al-Mubarak Al-Sabah Foundation / BRISMES Scholarships
Recipients 2010-2018

2018

Adélie Chevée

Intellectual Labour in Times of Change: Understanding the Politics of Critique in the Syrian Revolutionary Press (2011-2017)
(SOAS)

Haneen Naamneh

Socio-legal history of the Palestinian community in Jerusalem during the Jordanian rule period (1948–1967), and during the first decade of the Israeli occupation (1967–1977)
(LSE)

2017

Dorothy Armstrong

What is an 'Oriental' Carpet: the Euro-American ideology of the rugs of South, Central and West Asia since 1840
(Royal College of Art and Victoria and Albert Museum, London)

Sigrid Lupieri

Ageing and health care in times of crisis: whose vulnerability counts? The case of Syrian refugees in Jordan
(University of Cambridge)

2016

Maria Kramer

The Medicalisation of Consanguineous Marriage in Contemporary Turkey

Max Gallen

Smugglers and States – A Political Economy of Illegal Trade in the Middle East and North Africa

2015

José Ciro Martínez

The Politics of Bread: Neoliberal Economic Reforms and Authoritarian Persistence in Contemporary Jordan and Morocco
(University of Cambridge)

Rosemary Maxton

Sulaymān al-Ghazzī: A Voice of Resistance in a Time of Religious Persecution?
(University of Cambridge)

2014

Gizem Tongo

Ottoman Art and Artists during the First World War
(Oxford University)

Kawther Alfasi

Political participation under authoritarianism: the case of Libya
(University of Warwick)

2013 (to celebrate BRISMES' 40th Anniversary, two extra scholarships of £1,000 each were awarded)

Christopher Poonian

The loss of traditional Bedouin culture and its implications for coastal resource management in South Sinai
(University of Nottingham)

Lana Tatour

Transnational Dimensions of Palestinian Resistance in Israel
(University of Warwick)

Justa Hopma

How are local food consumption practices in Cairo affected by regional food politics?
(University of Aberystwyth)

Walead Mosaad

The Life and Writings of Aḥmad Al-ḡ-Dardīr: A study of Islamic Scholarship, Learning, and Social History in the Early Modern Era
(University of Exeter)

2012

Mike Farquahr

The social history and cultural politics of transnational circuits of Muslim scholars and students who for centuries have travelled from around the world to teach and undertake religious studies in the Hijaz
(London School of Economics and Political Science)

Denis Volkov

Orientalist Scholarship and Foreign Policy in late Tsarist Russia and the early USSR: Russian/Soviet 'Iranology' and Russo-Iranian relations 1900-1941
(University of Manchester)

2011

Sertac Sehlkoglu-Karakas

Agency, Enjoyment and Desire in Daily Lives of Pious Muslim women: Veiled Customers of Women-Only Gyms in Istanbul
(University of Cambridge)

Sharri Plonski

How a subjugated and marginalized ethno-national minority impacts inequitable structures and power relations in an ethnically exclusive state

(SOAS)

2010

Marwa Sharafeddin

Personal Status Law reform in Egypt: women's rights NGOs navigating between Islamic law and international human rights law'

(Oxford University)

Matthias Determann

Contemporary Historiography in Saudi Arabia

(SOAS)